Financial Issues

Ensuring Settlement Offers Work for You and Your Clients

Michael P. Black, Financial Planner

With financial modelling during the divorce process, clients understand what they got and why they got it, and they have a financial roadmap for their life post-divorce.

Technology

For Estate Planners, Embracing Technology is Crucial

By Scott Huff, Investment Advisor

Unless estate and legacy planners adopt technologies to improve the efficiency and value of their firms, they will not last through this digital generation.

Custody

Success Formulas for Move-Away Custody Disputes

By Maya Shulman, Family Lawyer

Why it is imperative that attorneys handling move-away cases both understand the nuances of the law, and are effective in making a persuasive initial factual showing.

Client Relationships

Why Non-Litigating Parents Should Be Required to Take Parent Education

By Dr. Donald Gordon, Clinical Child Psychologist

Five reasons all divorcing parents need a good parenting education program.
